Please join REIAC Southwest for a breakfast meeting discussing the significant ongoing development activities taking place in the City of Tempe. The discussion will have a particular emphasis on public/private partnerships between the City of Tempe and Arizona State University. Attendance will be limited to the first 30 RSVPs.

Neil Calfee

Neil Calfee
Principal, Calfee Group

For nearly two decades, Neil Calfee has demonstrated his expertise and experience in the cultivation and management of complex development projects, involving partnerships between government entities and the private sector. Whether located downtown or the heart of campus, these projects have dramatically changed their environments and served as catalysts for new growth and revitalization within the community. Neil is currently the principal of the Calfee Group, a company specializing in the creation and negotiation of public/private partnerships, serving both of these sectors. He previously served as the Director of Real Estate Development for Arizona State University, and prior to that as the Redevelopment and Revitalization Manager for the City of Tempe in Arizona.

Neil has served on numerous municipal boards and trade groups dealing with economic development, corporate real estate and affordable housing. He received a bachelor's degree in urban planning and an Executive MBA, both from Arizona State University.

Shannon Selby

Shannon Selby
Economic Development Director, City of Tempe

Shannon Selby serves as the Business Development Officer for the City of Tempe. She has more than 20 years of combined professional experience in economic and business development, commercial real estate, sales & marketing. Shannon's role is to drive investment through commercial development and business attraction, leading to capital investment, job creation and extension of the tax base.
